

FOOTSTEPS

Staring at a picture on the wall
Of memories, love and dust
White powder empire bridges
Fall into a river of blood

You let me in
Then pull me out
You suck me dry
And throw me away

...

Oooh!

...

When you feel alone
You call my name
You gave me everything
But left me with nothing to save

...

Dancing barefoot on the glass
Of memories lost and found
Echoes inside my head
Fall into a river of dust

You let me out
Then pull me in
You suck me dry
And throw me away

...

Oooh!

...

When you feel alone
You call my name
You gave me everything
But left me with nothing to save

...

Staring at a sea of dust
That soaks my tongue
And dries my blood

...

Can't follow your footsteps
