

HIDDEN PLACE (FINAL SENTENCE)

The end counting bodies
I've explored
And found just a glimpse of what you are

...

Caught between reason and despair
I've travelled away
So far

...

The city is off
Now I breathe
My heart is on
My eyes can see

The crowd is gone
My soul is caged
The fire is off
In the ground beneath

...

I live in a hidden place
Where the end is closer than your love

...

I've gained a wall I'm cumming to
It's just a place between you and me

...

Our world is falling into pieces
We live our lives beneath the surface

Caught between love and lust
We've travelled to a place way too far

...

The city is on
I can't breath
My heart breaks
My eyes can't see

The crowd shakes
My soul is free
The fire goes on
In the ground beneath
You and I
