

MATTER

the world
is just an empty space
and all the words you say are just inside of me

silence
fills the air I breath
and all the stars that shine will fall at my feet

and I believe the bitter days you made me weep and the promises we made will always be undone

the sins
commit for you and me
and all our paths
will be torn

strong at heart
is all I meant to be
wake up please
lay belief on me

inside matter
a silent disease
pure at heart

wake up please
lay belief on me

all you got is just an empty room and all I see
are his hands laid on me

all you got
all I can see
his hands laid down
reached out and rescued me
