

THE SILENT ROOM

Crying under the black sun
One silent lightbulb that
Illuminates all things
In a dark soft night
A cold fireball
That burns my skin

You're just the door
Locked inside the infinite
You left behind

Covered with this black light
Can't escape
From the universe
Inside me

This silent room
With no windows
And closed doors

Red wine like roses
Planted inside my veins
Run like a river in spring
In this wet space I'm in
Looking to the lightbulb
Above

You're just the door
Locked inside the infinite
You left behind
